MAGISTRATE COURT CRIMINAL COMPLAINT
CONTINUATION SHEET

County and Marion County in the Primary Election of 2016. At the request of the Secretary of State's Office, the West Virginia Attorney General's Office was requested to assist, and Investigator Joseph Stiles began looking into the matter. Investigator Stiles obtained information from the Monongalia and Marion County Clerks' Offices confirming an individual with matching identifiers had, in fact, voted in both counties. On Friday, May 5, 2017, Investigator Stiles met with the Defendant and informed him of the allegations. The records demonstrate he registered on or about July 1, 2015, and again on or about July 22, 2015. The Defendant admitted he used the process at the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), and also registered using the online voter registration (OVR) feature to accomplish the dual registrations. The records indicate the Defendant voted at the Smithtown Building in Monongalia County at 1:17 p.m., and later voted at the Eastdale Elementary in Marion County. The Defendant admitted to double voting consistent with the records.
